Training People That Care

CHC43315 CERTIFICATE IV IN MENTAL HEALTH

COURSE OVERVIEW

The CHC43315 Certificate IV in Mental Health is designed for individuals working or seeking to work in roles that provide self-directed, recovery-oriented support to people affected by mental illness or psychiatric disability. You'll learn to support clients across a range of community-based settings such as residential services, home outreach, respite care, and non-government organisations. This qualification prepares you to work autonomously while collaborating with care networks and mental health professionals to empower individuals to live with greater independence, wellbeing, and social connection.

The community services and mental health industry is growing rapidly, with increasing demand for compassionate and qualified workers. Whether you're looking to begin a career as a Mental Health Support Worker, Case Manager, or Community Services Worker, or you're already in the sector and seeking to formalise your experience, this course provides a strong foundation for a rewarding and meaningful career. Training Tailor Made students report over 90% satisfaction, graduating confident, competent, and ready to step into advanced care roles—with the guidance of our industry-recognised trainers.
