

CHC43015 CERTIFICATE IV IN AGEING SUPPORT

COURSE OVERVIEW

The CHC43015 Certificate IV in Ageing Support is designed for individuals currently working in the aged care or community services sector who are ready to take on more responsibility and provide a higher level of support to older clients. This qualification builds on foundational skills to prepare you for specialised tasks across residential, home, and community-based care environments. You'll learn to coordinate services, implement interventions, and develop, facilitate, and review individualised service plans to enhance the wellbeing, independence, and dignity of older people—including those living with dementia or requiring palliative care.

This course also supports the development of leadership and collaborative skills, allowing you to take responsibility for your own work and contribute to the oversight of others within defined organisational guidelines. With Australia's ageing population and growing demand for qualified aged care workers, this course opens the door to strong career prospects in one of the country's fastest-growing industries. Training Tailor Made students report over 90% satisfaction, graduating confident, competent, and ready to step into advanced care roles—with the guidance of our industry-recognised trainers.
